ESPAÇO JURÍDICO JOURNAL OF LAW (EJL)

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Espaço Jurídico Journal of Law (EJL) is currently seeking submissions of articles for review.

ABOUT THE EJL: Espaço Jurídico is an academic brazilian journal specialized in Human Rights and Fundamental Rights studies that aspires to be a forum for issues relevant to Constitutional Law, International Human Rights, Civil Rights and Social Rights.

EJL is a journal dedicated to publish studies that criticize the effectiveness of fundamental rights (advances and setbacks). So EJL encourages the submission of articles that investigates the solution of cases involving the application of constitutional rights, the application of treaties on human rights and fundamental rights (civil, political, economic, social and cultural). EJL also encourages the submission of scientific articles that present sociological studies on these topics.

The publication is run by researchers and draws its editorial board from The Universidade do Oeste de Santa Catarina (UNOESC) and from many others brazilian, american and european universities. The Journal invites ideas and points of views from within and from outside the legal community. Scholars, researchers, practitioners, and professionals are highly encouraged to submit their academic articles for consideration.

Papers in English, Portuguese and Spanish are eligible for submission.
